SERVANTS OF THE PARACLETE

November 2019 - Vol. 35 No. 11

“It is essential that Paracletes be enthusiastic and filled with the joy of the Lord, and joyful givers, because it is necessary that we inspire our fellow priests to be the same (Maxim 108).”

Servants of the Paraclete Maxims are principles taken from the works of Father Gerald Fitzgerald sP, founder of the Congregation, in his writings and teachings to his followers!

We are the heirs of this vision and commit ourselves to continue the healing Ministry of Christ to his wounded priests and brothers, by participating in the mission of the Roman Catholic Church and by adhering to its teachings. We believe that each priest and brother is made in the image and likeness of God has been graced with a Divine Vocation. We pledge to deliver a compassionate ministry: pastoral and professional care to our brothers wounded in the fray of life.

We commit ourselves to be responsible stewards of our resources. We strive to be advocates, healers, spiritual directors, professionally educated to promote sublime yet difficult Ministry.

We pledge to continue to offer any prudent and possible Ministry to those in Sacred Orders and in the Religious Life, relying on the ever-present healing power and exquisite mercy of a loving God.

We are the Servants of the Paraclete who exist through the grace of God: to heal, to offer hope, and to witness to the presence of a God who came and remains among us.
