“providing prudent and possible care for priests and brothers in need”

— Servants of the Paraclete Vision Statement

Spirit of God, come. Spend this year with us, your servants.

Enlighten us with your light,

Enliven us with your hope,

Envigor us with your grace.

We pledge anew our very lives. We give them to your priests and brothers, especially those most broken by human frailty, those most in need of your mercy and a second chance to receive your gifts.

Give us your generous blessings,

Heal our divisions and discouragements,

Help us in our weakness and worry,

That we may better celebrate your presence in our hearts, in our community and in our church.

Come to us in this year of grace, O divine Creator and Healer, O divine Son and Redeemer, O divine Paraclete of God's Love.

2016 was a year filled with ordinations to the transitional deaconate and the priesthood by 11 Servants of the Paraclete!

April 2016 – 9 men representing Vietnam, Philippines, Ghana and Nigeria were ordained to the transitional deaconate

October 2016 - Reverend Camillus sP celebrates his transitional deaconate with Fr. Jose sP

Vietnam

Philippines

Ghana

Nigeria

Final Vows were professed by Fr. Guido sP and Fr. Raffaele sP. They are former members of the Vallomrosian Benedictine Oblates who received permission to transfer to the Servants of the Paraclete on January 5th, 2013. Fr. Don Paulo sP is a member of the Servants of the Paraclete in temporary vows.
