SERVING CHRIST'S PRIESTS

1947-2017

“We read with particular pleasure, beloved son (Fr. Gerald Fitzgerald sP) that the central devotion in all houses of your Congregation is to be Our Eucharistic Lord. So, indeed it should be. For the priest who has not the Blessed Sacrament in the center of his life cannot live his priesthood”.

Pope St. John XXIII, Personal letter to Fr. Gerald Fitzgerald
September 14, 1959

While the Servants of the Paraclete make use of much that nature and nurture has to offer, our deepest belief is that all healing for spirit and vocation comes ultimately from Christ, our Redeemer. The daily celebration of the Eucharist is the center of each day in our renewal and treatment programs. In this way the Eucharistic love of Christ shines on and brings life to all that is within our mind, heart and memory. The sunshine of nature and the radiation of fraternal charity are thus able to be transformed in a divine way.

“One cannot know the Lord without being in the habit of adoring, of adoring in silence,” Pope Francis has reminded the faithful many times. Yet, he lamented, “I believe, if I am not mistaken, that this prayer of adoration is the least known among us; it is the one we engage in the least.”
